HARD ON SPANIARDS.

Plain Talk by Suspected Assassin to Commandant.

Manila, June 27, via Hongkong, July 4.—A prominent resident of the Philippine islands, Senor Buencamino, recently arrived at Cavite, ostensibly to intercede with Senor Aguinaldo in behalf of the Spaniards, but he was made a prisoner and suspicion that he intended to kill General Aguinaldo, the insurgent leader, and claim the reward of $25,000 offered for his life by the Spanish Government. The prisoner has written a remarkable letter to Captain General Augusti, explaining that he had always been an ardent supporter of Spain, that he raised a corps of volunteers and that he had made various sacrifices for the Spanish cause, only to find that his efforts were wasted.

He added: "The Spaniards are unable or unwilling to perform their share of defense and the native volunteers bore the brunt of the fighting, the Spaniards shirking their duty like cowards, bunglers and a perjured, priest-ridden inferior race. God decrees that they have no right to govern and it would be better to surrender and avoid the massacre which will inevitably follow a protracted struggle."

The writer concludes with advising Captain General Augusti in the mean while to guarantee the safe conduct of all who wish to leave the country and the protection of those who remain after July 4.

SHERMAN ON ALASKA.

Thinks Country Will Soon Be Granted Territorial Rights.

Seattle, July 1.—Ex-Secretary of State John Sherman and Mrs. Sherman returned from Alaska last night. Mr. Sherman said: "Alaska would be better governed had she regular territorial laws. I believe it will be but a short time until Congress gives her the right. There are many things that such a change would improve. The country is fast filling up, chiefly, I understand, with Norwegians and others used to a cold climate. For the most part they are excellent citizens. Under such circumstances it is a question of a short time before Alaska will have full territorial rights."

"It may be years before statehood can be granted, and I do not think that step advisable until the population has greatly increased and become firmly established. I had heard much about drunkenness and crime in the north, but I did not see a drunken man from the time I left Seattle until I returned. That prohibition law to which Alaskans object so strenuously does not seem to prohibit entirely. I noticed many saloons in every settlement, to remain on the statute books for a long time, and it is better off if it cannot be enforced."

CIRCUS GONE BROKE.

Hawaiian Damsel that Left to Train With It Comes Home.

News comes from Vancouver to the effect that the Willison circus, which made such a long stay here and "did" the islands thoroughly, has gone to pieces. The first sign of this was the return on the last steamer from Vancouver and Victoria of a little Hawaiian girl taken by Mr. Willison to be trained as a circus performer.

Mr. and Mrs. St. Leon, who were with the show when here, will be back in a short time. Mr. St. Leon expects to get something to do in the Islands.

SURPRISED THE SPANIARDS*They Did Not Know There Was War Till They Were Taken.*Governor of Ladrones Had No Power to Return a Salute—The Natives Rejoice.

New York, July 4.—The World has from its Manila correspondent the following description of the seizure of Guaban: The Charleston took position in leasy range of Fort Santa Cruz, which is supposed to guard the entrance to San Luis, and on which the Spanish flag was flying. The Charleston fired a dozen blank shots at the rather dilapidated fortress. The Spanish flag still flew; there was absolutely no response from the fort. So Captain Glass concluded to await developments. In the afternoon two Spanish officers, in full uniform, were towed out to the Charleston. "Governor Marina presents his compliments," they said to Captain Glass, bowing and scraping. "He thanks you for your salute. He is very sorry he could not return it, but, unfortunately, we have no powder."

The situation was explained to them and very gently they were made prisoners. Never before were men so astonished. Then Captain Glass sent a message to the Governor, ordering him to come aboard the Charleston. The Governor, equally ignorant what was going on, sent back this courteous message:

"Governor Marina presents his compliments and regrets that he cannot accept the polite invitation to visit the Charleston. But the laws of Spain forbid him to set foot off the islands for an instant. He will be very glad to see Captain Glass at the Governor's residence at 10 a. m. tomorrow."

Captain Glass did not accept the invitation in person. Early the next morning he sent ashore a Lieutenant and a small force of marines. The Lieutenant announced Glass's ultimatum to the astonished man, that he must surrender in half an hour or the town would be bombarded. As soon as the Governor recovered his equanimity he promptly surrendered. In the afternoon a large force was landed. A few Spanish sailors were disarmed and made prisoners. The United States marines and blue-jackets formed around the staff from which Spain's flag had been hauled down and formally the United States took possession of the islands. The simple ceremony was made more impressive by the joy of the natives, who thus unexpectedly found themselves free. The native soldiers tore the buttons from their Spanish uniforms and cheered the Americans.

A man in Virginia rode forty miles, to Fairfax Station, for the express purpose of getting Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and took home with him a dozen bottles of the medicine. The druggist who relates the incident, adds: "Your remedy seems to be a general favorite wherever known." Its effects are indeed wonderful in all lung and throat troubles. Procure a bottle at Benson, Smith & Co., drug store.

"There Are Other Pebbles."

But do not for a moment think that the Anchor Saloon is just like them. Liquid refreshments, to be refreshing, require a certain dash of skill and experience in the mixing. Carlyle and Andrews make a great success in this department and stand ready to satisfy patrons in the matter of Seattle beer on draught, as well as all the best brands of whisky, viz: John Dewar's Scotch, O. P. S., etc., and from a full line of other liquors and wines cannot fail to fill even the most exacting and varied demand.
